Clay TreED

What a wonderful start to the fall by having all our participants back at Clay Tree and the place buzzing with excitement, it fills your heart with joy every day to walk around and see the place back to it's noisy and chaotic ways. Everything just seems brighter with all the guys back. I know we still have a long way to go with the pandemic but things are starting to look up in BC .

We have a lot to look forward to with our AGM on October 6th, you will by now have received your packages (members) and voting slips are to be mailed in the stamped envelope provided, please log on to facebook that morning as at 10:15 a.m. our meeting will go live and you will be able to join in via facebook.

This will be the final time I write in the newsletter as your Executive Director, our new Director is in working with me at the moment and she will no doubt be filling you in on all the happenings in the newsletters to follow. Jennifer Fowler is going to be a great asset to the society and I am enjoying these first few weeks with her. You will have the chance to meet Jennifer at a meet and greet we are having at the society on the evening of October 27th (all details to follow shortly).

Art from the Heart will now take place in the spring and although we have some exciting things for the participants lined up our fund raising does remain virtual at the moment, we will be doing the Purdy's sale and the wonderful online auction will once again be going live at the end of November for you to peruse and bid on the items that are displayed.

If there are any questions at all please don't hesitate to contact me on 1 2508823755 or e mail at glenys.claytree@shaw.ca

Looking forward to seeing you all on October 27th,

Regards,

Glenys
